

No Alum No Lime Phosphate

Fifty Years the Standard

Dr. PRICE'S CREAM BAKING POWDER

Made from Grapes

Makes the food of superior healthfulness and finest quality

BOY'S ARM BROKEN; MORMON SCHOOL ENDS

Mexican Takes Honors at Colonia Juarez—Hunter Captures Wild Animals.

Colonia Juarez, Mexico, May 20.—While Willie Jackson was helping his father in the grist mill below Casas Grandes, his arm got caught in the belt and was broken above and below the elbow and the bone laid bare.

The chicken contest conducted by the Academy has been brought to a close. Miss Ida Johnson, of Colonia Diaz, winning the prize.

Born, to John Prows and wife, a baby girl. Benjamin Echols is ill with nervous prostration, caused by overwork.

Colonia Juarez, Mexico, May 20.—Andres Gonzales, one of the three graduates, has the distinction of being the first native to take a diploma from the academy. He is also the first person to complete the course in the agricultural department. The other two graduates were from the Normal department.

During the commencement exercises the athletes of the stake were given a banquet on the lawn of the Iyins home by the domestic science girls.

The class of 1911 gave the class of 1910 a party in which they presented each graduate with a gold pin, and an album. The 1910 class gave the academy a pair of iron entrance gates to the grounds, which has been the annual custom.

"The Silver King," a play by the academy students was presented three nights in succession to full houses.

Mrs. Irene Alfred has come to Colonia Juarez to remain for the summer. In the fall she expects to return to her home in Guatemala.

The little child of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Johnson of Chulchupa, died while they were on their way home from commencement exercises. The child was sick while they were here.

Professor Guy C. Wilson has gone to Utah, where he will spend his summer attending school. Last school year there were 1675 students enrolled in the Juarez stake and 52 teachers. The enrollment was about 60 more than in attendance last year.

Mr. Taylor, of Ohio, has returned from a 60 day hunting trip in the mountains. He caught a very large bear, five wild hogs, three mountain lions, and smaller game. Harlan Johnson was his guide.

The little child of Charles McClellan is very ill.

GLOBE COMMERCE CHAMBER WANTS FORMER SECRETARY.

E. C. Mason, alias R. C. Rohrabacher, a Newspaper Man, is Alleged Embezzler.

Globe, Ariz., May 20.—E. C. Mason, alias R. C. Rohrabacher, who secured the position of secretary of the Globe chamber of commerce and held it two months, will be brought back here to stand trial for alleged embezzlement of the funds of that organization, if searching officers arrest him.

It has been learned definitely that the man who used the name of Rohrabacher is Mason, as a confession signed by him was obtained by the real Rohrabacher, who is a prominent newspaperman of the Puget sound country. He sent with a copy of the confession a photograph of the man who posed as Rohrabacher in Globe.

A warrant has been issued here charging Mason with embezzlement.

COURT ADJOURNS AT GLOBE—TWO PRISONERS FOUND GUILTY

Globe, Ariz., May 20.—The criminal calendar of the spring term of the district court was completed with the conviction of P. E. Pullen, charged with grand larceny. The last sentence passed by Judge Lewis was that of a year and one day in the penitentiary for Pete Jurascovich, formerly a porter at the Dominion hotel, who was convicted of assault with a deadly weapon on a liverman.

Judge Lewis has gone to Phoenix to attend the session of the territorial supreme court and will return on May 25 to resume the trial of civil cases. He has ordered the impounding of the United States grand jury for June 6 and the federal trial jury for June 8.

Mr. and Mrs. T. M. Gourley are convalescing from smallpox. Neither Mr. nor Mrs. Gourley have been told of the death of Webster Gourley, who died last week at the European hospital in El Paso. Webster Gourley contracted smallpox while ministering to his brother.

Several young men of El Paso gave a delightful dance Thursday evening at Valley Inn. An orchestra played throughout the evening and iced and cakes were served. The merry party came down in an English coach and was chaperoned by Mrs. W. M. Bryan.

MEAT INSPECTORS GIVEN EXAMINATION

Bureau of Animal Industry Chiefs Are Here, But Do Not Make Inspection of Cold Storage Houses.

Dr. A. M. Farrington, assistant chief of the bureau of animal industry, and Dr. A. E. Behnke, associate chief of the inspection division, are in El Paso on a tour of inspection and examination. The two department of agriculture officials came here from Ft. Worth, where a large class of meat inspectors were examined.

Only three local inspectors were examined by the visitors, who are only testing those of more than three years' service. An oral and written test was made at the postoffice building, and a practical examination conducted at the Armour company's plant. Results will be announced from Washington.

"We are doing no inspection in El Paso," said Dr. Farrington. "At Fort Worth we examined a class of inspectors from the surrounding district, but we only stop here to examine the three local men on our way to the coast. Conditions seem very satisfactory in Texas."

The two physicians, accompanied by a stenographer and a meat inspector, will proceed immediately for the coast.

TWO TICKETS IN FIELD FOR GLOBE CITY ELECTION

Globe, Ariz., May 20.—A straight Democratic ticket and an independent non-partisan ticket are in the field for the city election Monday. The non-partisans, however, have endorsed John D. Coplen, the Democratic nominee, for mayor. The independent ticket is composed largely of Republicans.

EDISON SELLS OUT WATERWORKS AT ALAMOGORDO, N. M.

Alamogordo, N. M., May 20.—The Alamogordo Waterworks company, W. R. Edison, general manager, has been sold out to the Alamogordo Improvement company, consideration about $180,000. This deal gives the Alamogordo Improvement company the city water and all belongings, 12 miles of mains to the mountain springs, tanks, etc.

F. W. Beach, general manager for the Improvement company, and W. T. Van Brunt, vice president of the Improvement company, met W. R. Edison here last night.

CITY WATER CLERK IN JAIL AT GLOBE

Alleged to Be $1500 Short in His Accounts—Books Sealed.

Globe, Ariz., May 20.—The books of the city water department are awaiting an examination by expert accountant Barron, the county examiner, who will return Friday night from the coast. H. M. Hubbard, former clerk in the water department, is in the county jail pending a complete investigation of his accounts.

Hubbard, who is a brother-in-law of city attorney Alfred, was arrested when an alleged discrepancy in his cash book was discovered. It is alleged the accounts are short about $1500. No effort will be made to obtain Hubbard's release on bail, it is said.

SHEEP SHEARING IN PROGRESS AT ROSWELL

Oil Land Withdrawn From Entry by Ballinger Located in Eddy County; Students Take Examinations.

Roswell, N. M., May 20.—Miller Bros. and A. D. Garrett, of Roswell, Mr. McHenry of Dexter and Mr. Corn of Eden Valley, are now shearing their sheep. Fritz Brink will begin his shearing about May 25 and Eliza White and Rhea Brothers, about June 1.

Ed. Amoret, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Amoret, has gone to El Paso for a visit with his uncle, W. L. Amoret, and from there goes to Dallas to attend college.

W. C. McDonald, the Carrizozo cattle man, and Dan Malloy, a cattle buyer from Lamar, Colo., are in Roswell. Fred N. Bartlett is nursing one of his arms, broken while cranking an auto.

Twenty boys and girls who attended the eighth grade examinations at Dexter, received certificates of promotion, entitling them to admission to any high school in New Mexico.

David Rosenwald, of Albuquerque, president of the New Mexico Clearing company, is visiting Otto Baner, manager of the Roswell branch.

Dr. G. W. Duke and wife, of Gilmer, Texas, are temporary residents of Roswell, having come here for his health. Rev. P. H. McDowell, pastor of the Baptist church, assisted by E. O. Sellers, a singer from Chicago, is holding revival meetings.

The driver of a city street sprinkler collided with the buggy of Mrs. H. J. Swartz, overturning it. She escaped injury.

Fourteen townships in what is called the Dayton oil district, extending from the Eddy county line on the north to a point two miles south of Lakewood, including four townships square and townships 17 and 18, north and south of the line, have been temporarily withdrawn from entry by secretary Ballinger of the interior.

VALLEY-ALFAFA READY FOR SECOND CUTTING

T. M. Gourley and wife are convalescing from smallpox and do not know of Brother's Death.

Yuleta, Tex., May 20.—Alfafa will soon be ready for the second cutting. The first cutting was unusually heavy and the second will be no less so. The first alfalfa shipment was made almost double during the past year.

Max Schuba has returned from a successful business trip through Arizona and New Mexico. He reports times unusually good both in Arizona and New Mexico.

Edward Downing, of Scottsville, Ky., is the guest of his uncle, J. W. Lowry, Mrs. Wm. D. Landen has returned from a visit to Mrs. J. W. Eubank, of El Paso.

Mr. and Mrs. T. M. Gourley are convalescing from smallpox. Neither Mr. nor Mrs. Gourley have been told of the death of Webster Gourley, who died last week at the European hospital in El Paso. Webster Gourley contracted smallpox while ministering to his brother.

Several young men of El Paso gave a delightful dance Thursday evening at Valley Inn. An orchestra played throughout the evening and iced and cakes were served. The merry party came down in an English coach and was chaperoned by Mrs. W. M. Bryan.

MEAT INSPECTORS GIVEN EXAMINATION

Bureau of Animal Industry Chiefs Are Here, But Do Not Make Inspection of Cold Storage Houses.

Dr. A. M. Farrington, assistant chief of the bureau of animal industry, and Dr. A. E. Behnke, associate chief of the inspection division, are in El Paso on a tour of inspection and examination. The two department of agriculture officials came here from Ft. Worth, where a large class of meat inspectors were examined.

Only three local inspectors were examined by the visitors, who are only testing those of more than three years' service. An oral and written test was made at the postoffice building, and a practical examination conducted at the Armour company's plant. Results will be announced from Washington.

More Good News for Men--Read all About These Bargains

As Summer Advances Our Saturday-and-Monday Specials Increase in Importance

The Biggest Bargains Yet--Eight Splendid Specials for Saturday and Monday

$22.50 and $25.00 "Schloss" Tailored Suits $16.75

To sell Schloss Bros. strictly hand tailored clothing at this reduction is entirely out of the ordinary. However, we propose to make Saturday and Monday of each week of unusual interest to shoppers here, so do not hesitate at any reduction that is in reason. In this special offer is a full range of sizes for both men and youths. Every style of the season is included, and there is a full range of patterns. Remember, this reduction is made on Schloss "Baltimore" clothing. Regular prices are $22.50 and $25.00; special Saturday and Monday..... $16.75

Two Shirt Specials Two Trouser Specials

Regular $1.00 and $1.25 Pongee Shirts are special for Saturday and Monday at

85c

Regular $1.50 and $1.75 Pongee Shirts are special for Saturday and Monday at

$1.15

Regular $2.50 Summerweight Wool Trousers; special Saturday and Monday at

$1.65

Regular $3.00 and $3.50 Summerweight Wool Trousers; Saturday and Monday at

$2.50

Extra! Extra!

600 Pairs Men's Sample Shoes and Oxfords

Saturday we place on sale 600 pair of Men's Sample Shoes and Oxfords. These are all hand welt, and come in vici, gummetal patent kid and tan. There is a full range of sizes and styles. Values are regularly $4.00 and $5.00; Saturday-and-Monday special

$2.90

By Charles Klein and Arthur Hornblow

The Third Degree

A Narrative Of Metropolitan Life

Copyright, 1910, by G. W. Dillingham Co.

Illustrations By Ray Walters

(Continued From Yesterday.)

SYNOPSIS OF PREVIOUS CHAPTERS.

Howard Jeffries marries waitress while at college and is disinherited by rich father. Stepmother visits apartments of her old flame, Robert Underwood, to try to prevent him ending his life when pressed by creditors. Howard, visiting Underwood, a former college mate, seeking a loan, is asleep in the apartments during the interview and as stepmother leaves, Underwood shoots himself. Howard awakens and is arrested and, by police third degree methods, is made to confess to the crime. His wife seeks aid of his family.

"I worked in a factory when I was nine years old, and I've earned my living ever since. There's no disgrace in that, is there? There's nothing against me personally—nothing disgraceful, I mean. I know I'm not educated. I'm not a lady in your sense of the word, but I've led a decent life. There isn't a breath of scandal against me—not a breath. But what's the good of talking about me? Never mind me. I'm not asking for anything. What are you going to do for him? He must have the best lawyer that money can procure—none of those barroom orators. Judge Brewster, your lawyer, is the man. We want Judge Brewster."

Mr. Jeffries shrugged his shoulders. "I repeat—my son's marriage with the daughter of a man who died in prison—"

She interrupted him. "That was hard luck—nothing but hard luck. You're not going to make me responsible for that, are you? Why, I was only eight years old when that happened. Could I have prevented it? Recklessly she went on: 'Well, blame it on me if you want to, but don't hold it up against Howard. He didn't know it when he married me. He never would have known it but for the detectives employed by you to dig up my family history, and the newspapers did the rest. God! what they didn't say! I never realized I was of so much importance. They printed it in scare-head lines. It made a fine sensation for the public, but it destroyed my peace of mind.'"

"A convict's daughter!" said Mr. Jeffries contemptuously.

"He was a good man at that!" she answered hotly. "He kept the squarest poolroom in Manhattan, but he refused to pay police blackmail, and he was railroaded to prison." Indignantly she went on: "If my father's shingle had been up in Wall street, and he'd made 50 dishonest millions, you'd forget it next morning, and you'd welcome me with open arms. But he was unfortunate. Why, Billy Delmore was the best man in the world. He'd give away the last dollar he had to a friend. I wish to God he was alive now! He'd help to save your son. I wouldn't have to come here to ask you."

Mr. Jeffries shifted uneasily on his feet and looked away.

"You don't seem to understand," he said impatiently. "I've completely cut him off from the family. It's as if he were dead."

She approached nearer and laid her hand gently on the banker's arm. "Don't say that, Mr. Jeffries. It's wicked to say that about your own son. He's a good boy at heart, and he's been so good to me. Ah, if you only knew how hard he's tried to get work I'm sure you'd change your opinion of him. Lately he's been drinking a little because he was disappointed in not getting anything to do. But he tried so hard. He walked the streets night and day. Once he even took a position as guard on the elevated road. Just think of it, Mr. Jeffries, your son—to such straits were we reduced—but he caught cold and had to give it up. I wanted to go to work and help him out. I always earned my living before I married him, but he wouldn't let me. You don't know what a good heart he's got. He's been weak and foolish, but you know he's only a boy."

She watched his face to see if her words were having any effect, but Mr. Jeffries showed no sign of relenting. Sarcastically, he said:

"And you took advantage of the fact and married him?"

For a moment she made no reply. She felt the reproach was not unmerited, but why should she blame her for seeking happiness? Was she not entitled to it as much as any other woman? She had not married Howard for his social position or his money. In fact, she had been worse off since her marriage than she was before. She married him because she loved him, and because she thought she could redeem him, and she was ready to go through any amount of suffering to prove her disinterested devotion. Quietly, she said:

"Yes, I know—I did wrong. But I love him, Mr. Jeffries. Believe me or not—I love him. It's my only excuse. I thought I could take care of him. He needed some one to look after him, he's too easily influenced. You know his character is not so strong as it might be. He told me that his fellow students at college used to hypnotize him and make him do all kinds of things to amuse the other boys. He says that somehow he's never been the same since. I—I just loved him because I was strong and he was weak. I thought I could protect him. But now this terrible thing has happened, and I find I am powerless. It's too much for me. I can't fight this battle alone. Won't you help me, Mr. Jeffries?" she asked pleadingly. "Won't you help me?"

The banker was thoughtful a minute, then suddenly he turned on her. "Will you consent to a divorce if I agree to help him?"

She looked at him with dismay. There was tragic tenseness in this dramatic situation—a father fighting for his son, a woman fighting for her husband.

"A divorce?" she stammered. "Why, I never thought of such a thing as that."

"It's the only way to save him," said the banker coldly.

"The only way?" she faltered.

"The only way," said Mr. Jeffries firmly. "Do you consent?" he asked.

Annie threw up her head. Her pale face was full of determination, as she replied resignedly, catching her breath as she spoke:

"Yes, if it must be. I will consent to a divorce—to save him!"

"You will leave the country and go abroad to live?" continued the banker coldly.

too much for me. I can't fight this battle alone. Won't you help me, Mr. Jeffries?" she asked pleadingly. "Won't you help me?"

The banker was thoughtful a minute, then suddenly he turned on her. "Will you consent to a divorce if I agree to help him?"

She looked at him with dismay. There was tragic tenseness in this dramatic situation—a father fighting for his son, a woman fighting for her husband.

"A divorce?" she stammered. "Why, I never thought of such a thing as that."

"It's the only way to save him," said the banker coldly.

"The only way?" she faltered.

"The only way," said Mr. Jeffries firmly. "Do you consent?" he asked.

Annie threw up her head. Her pale face was full of determination, as she replied resignedly, catching her breath as she spoke:

"Yes, if it must be. I will consent to a divorce—to save him!"

"You will leave the country and go abroad to live?" continued the banker coldly.

(TO BE CONTINUED)

Dr. Cameron, dentist, reliable dentistry, most reasonable prices. Over Guarantee shoe store. Work guaranteed.

ECONOMICAL FOODS

Are the natural foods of mankind. WHEAT, OATS, RICE AND BARLEY of which is made. A package of this food costing 15 cents, will yield as much nutriment as three times that sum spent in meats. Better yet, the eating of Dr. Price's food means improved health and increased vitality. The combining of the essential qualities of all these grains makes a food of great strength, supplying more nourishment than any other cereal food. Ask your Grocer.

DR. PRICE'S ALGRAIN FOOD

ENGINEERS,' DRAUGHTSMEN'S PHOTOGRAPHERS' INSTRUMENTS AND SUPPLIES

Fred J. Feldman Co.

308 San Antonio St.

SOUTHWESTERN SALES AGENTS KEUFFEL & ESSER CO, OF N. Y.

Tabor's Metal Weather Strips

KEEP OUT SAND, DIRT AND WIND AT THE DOORS AND WINDOWS.

Craig, O'Donnell & Co., Gen. Agts. Phone Bell 43. Chamber of Commerce Bldg.

Choicest Meats AND Finest Poultry

You cannot be too particular about the kind of meat you eat, especially during the summer and the high cost of living should remind you that you cannot afford to pay too high prices for meat. For those two reasons your orders should come here. We sell only the most select meats and at let-live prices. Send us a trial order tomorrow and you will become a regular customer.

SPECIALS FOR SATURDAY.

Prime rib roast, per lb. 15c
Chuck roast or steak, per lb. 10c
Veal stew, per lb. 12 1-2c
Home rendered lard, per lb. 17 1-2c
Home made sausage, per lb. 10c

WEINER WURST MADE DAILY.

Try Our Home Dressed Poultry.

Opitz Market

213 N. Stanton St.

Bell Phone 136.